Where it is desirable to appoint new trustees any such appointment must be ratified by the existing trustees at a duly constituted board meeting. Any such new trustees are initially selected having regard to their personal and professional expertise in the activities of the charity. If required, training is given to new trustees to ensure they are competent and able to fulfil their roles.

All decision making is undertaken by members of the Board. The charity has no staff and there is, therefore, no requirement to delegate decision making further.

The Trustees have assessed the major risks to which the Trust is exposed, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate exposure to the major risks.
